SAN MATEO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--ROBLOX, a global online platform bringing more than 150 million people together through play, announced today the launch of its free curriculum on Digital Civility to foster positive, safe, and productive online experiences and discussions among students. The curriculum also includes a new ROBLOX game called Digital Safety Scavenger Hunt, which teaches users how to spot unreliable information and stay safe online. Both resources are designed to be used in conjunction and are meant to engage kids and teens who are going back to online learning this fall.

If you purchase ROBUX on ROBLOX itself, it will automatically be added to your account. If you have a gift card or promo code, you can redeem it through the redeem area of their website.

ROBLOX Studios, the program used to create and program games in ROBLOX, features a simplified graphical interface, objects, and the ability to adjust the properties of everything in the game. This drastically lowers the barrier of entry and allows anyone to make their own games.

The Digital Civility curriculum intertwines safety and civility lessons with STEM skills in a clever way. Students are asked to create their own games, and as they collaborate and play, they will also have discussions on digital civility and safety topics such as:

This means you will be able to get free ROBUX for every signup as well as when people who do signup using your URL also buy in-game items. Creating a game and then using a referral program does mean you have to put in some serious work, but the free ROBUX you get will be worth it.

The curriculum features six sessions (up to 20 hours of content), allowing educators to engage students in ongoing conversations to help develop long-term safety and civility skills. Developed jointly by the ROBLOX Education team in collaboration with Laura Higgins, an expert with over 20 years in online safety and civility who leads ROBLOX™s Digital Civility Initiative, this new course is designed to better serve the needs of educators who can freely access ROBLOX™s ISTE-certified curriculum to support virtual learning during this ever-changing time.

ROBLOX said that it now expects its direct listing to take place in March, rather than February as it indicated in a prior filing. ROBLOX had originally planned to go public through a traditional IPO in December, but it delayed its debut a first time and changed to a direct listing after Doordash and Airbnb priced their IPOs well below where the stocks opened.

There are several risks associated with ROBLOX that you should be aware of. Firstly, although ROBLOX has an age rating of 7+, the games themselves do not have age limits.
