It is fairly common to see another player being a bit overdramatic, especially since the age range for this game varies so greatly. This meme is just one example of this as someone's avatar laying on the ground claims they are dying, but no one around seems to care.

ROBLOX has come a long way from the clunky, blocky characters and difficult user interface of its past and now serves as a global gaming and game development and programming platform, with hundreds of thousands of games available from dedicated, young creators. While ROBLOX itself is free-to-play, and many games don't require players to use real-world currency or the in-game ROBUX, some games include purchasable items, add-ons, and other microtransactions like game passes. For players who don't want to spend real money on such microtransactions, there is still so much great free content available.

You can use these rewards to buy ROBUX.

What makes this game unique is that this game doesn't have a predefined way to play. Rather than creating dedicated game modes that everyone signs in to play, ROBLOX puts the tools of creation in the players' hands. This lets the players come up with whatever they want.

This strange hybrid of offering free and paid content side by side has led to ROBLOX earning an incredible $2.29 billion in 2020, making it the third highest earning free to play game of the year.
