Unboxing videos are still incredibly popular, and Unboxing Simulator by teamunsquared takes the idea to a new level. In this game, players unlock areas and dungeons and destroy boxes. Boxes will contain hats, coins, and gems that can be used to unlock new areas with different content. There are also eggs players can collect and hatch, which will grant them access to various pets. Players can also input codes to claim rewards like extra coins and gems or boosts on their way to becoming the ultimate box smasher.

A game called Pet Heroes takes you on an adventure with a few pet sidekicks who will fight for you in battle. This code unlocks a secondary pet to follow you around and it resembles the bird from the Twitter logo as the creators encourage you to follow them on this platform. It will fly around beside you and adds a little something extra to your gameplay as you are not stuck with a single animal from the start.

However, some players log on just to troll and these are usually teenagers or adult players who just want to poke fun. Just be careful not to give them too hard a time as you could be kicked, or they could trick you into closing your game out altogether.

FORTNITE has come a long way from the clunky, blocky characters and difficult user interface of its past and now serves as a global gaming and game development and programming platform, with hundreds of thousands of games available from dedicated, young creators. While FORTNITE itself is free-to-play, and many games don't require players to use real-world currency or the in-game V BUCKS, some games include purchasable items, add-ons, and other microtransactions like game passes. For players who don't want to spend real money on such microtransactions, there is still so much great free content available.

The Digital Civility curriculum intertwines safety and civility lessons with STEM skills in a clever way. Students are asked to create their own games, and as they collaborate and play, they will also have discussions on digital civility and safety topics such as:
