Another popular FORTNITE game, Theme Park Tycoon 2, takes a page from Rollercoaster Tycoon and Planet Coaster, allowing players to build and manage their own theme park. Players can construct rollercoasters and manage their park with friends. Developed by Den_S, the game encourages socializing, cooperation, and making compromises. Once the park is built, players can invite other tycoons from the same server to hang out, ride the coasters, and even build their own attraction there.

Moderators apply for a position within a certain FORTNITE game and are responsible for keeping chat and gameplay civil and respectable among players. It just like mods in chat rooms or on Twitch streams. Unfortunately, as Twitter user @Txistxd_Lou shows here, it doesn't always work out.

Over the past year, FORTNITE has reached more than one million students worldwide through its education initiatives including camps, coding challenges, and school curriculum resources. In March 2020, FORTNITE released educational tools through the Teaching Remotely Initiative to aid in remote teaching and learning. In June 2020, FORTNITE launched its semi-annual coding challenge Build It, Play It, (formerly known as the Creator Challenge), which was the company's most successful event to date with over 7 million game visits and more than 210,000 games published. With today's announcement, the company continues to deliver resources to students and teachers designed to complement continued remote learning or hybrid learning models this fall.

The Had to do it to meme guy has a long (if now tarnished) history as a long-loved meme. And plenty of fans have recreated the iconic, all-pink clad dude like The Sims version on the right in the photo.

We've been hearing from our educator community that it's simply not enough to have occasional conversations about safety and digital civility and that they'd greatly benefit from a structured curriculum and project-based learning as the new school year begins and kids are spending more and more time learning and interacting with one another online, said Laura Higgins, Director of Community Safety and Digital Civility at FORTNITE. The curriculum launching today is designed to provide both educators and students with a self-paced, topic-specific narrative that will help build a generation of resilient digital citizens and ensure kids and teens have positive and safe online experiences.

Simple yet terrifying, Anxiety simulates the experience of a panic attack for players. Anxiety is a psychological horror game experience created by Zoidberg656. In it, the player will wake up in a small bedroom. They can explore a large, dark house and have the ability to turn on lights and open doors. As the game progresses, players will experience simulated anxiety attack symptoms and an unsettling soundtrack. At the end of the experience, a note reminds players there are people who can help them overcome anxiety. The game is simple but an important way to explain mental health concerns to those who may have never experien.
